HOW TO FILE A CLAIM

We've made the process simple and stress free. Here's what to do immediately after you become aware of damage or theft:

Take photos

Protect your property from further damage

Keep your lock and damaged property

Call the police and obtain a report

Provide proof of value (sales receipts, photos of items stored in the unit, and other evidence of loss)

Notable plan exclusions include flood, surface water, and mysterious disappearance.

VaultGard Tenant Protection Plans do not cover against the following losses: accounts, bills, currency, documents, deeds, data, records, evidences of debt, money, notes, securities, or stamps; animals, birds, or fish; aircraft; contraband or other property held for, or in the course of, illegal transportation, trade, or sale; firearms; furs, fur garments, and garments trimmed with fur; jewelry, watches, precious or semiprecious stones, bullion, gold, gold plated ware, goldware, silver, silverware, platinum, or other precious metals or alloys, collectibles, and photographic equipment; valuable papers and records, including those which exist as electronic data and photographs. We suggest you refrain from storing these items in your self-storage unit.

This is a summary. Please refer to your self-storage rental agreement for a full description of terms, conditions, limits, and exclusions.

While your store may require some form of stored goods protection, participation in the VaultGard Protection Plan is not required to rent storage space. The plan may duplicate coverage that may be provided by a homeowners or renters insurance policy. The VaultGard Protection Plan is a month-to-month program. You may cancel your participation in the Plan at any time.
